• That children and young people may be messengers of the Gospel and that they may be respected and preserved from all violence and exploitation.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING CORNER – JANUARY 1, 2012

The central characters in today's Gospel are the shepherds. When Jesus was born, they were not seen as good Jews or good citizens. The first persons to worship Christ and to be welcomed by Mary were outcasts. Like Mary and Jesus are we willing to see "outcasts" with new eyes?

OLG ACTS RETREAT

Join us for the next Spanish Women's ACTS retreat from January 19, 2012 through January 22, 2012 in Burnet, Texas. Applications are available in the parish office or at the church entrance after the Spanish masses.

SPECIAL COLLECTION ON JAN. 1, 2012

Each year, the annual special collection on the Feast of the Holy Family supports various family services in the Diocese of Austin. This year, the collection will be taken up the weekend of Jan. 1. Funds from this collection will support the life-affirming programs of Annunciation Maternity Home in Georgetown, Our Lady of the Angels Maternity Shelter in Temple and Marywood Children and Family Services in Austin. These Central Texas agencies help expectant mothers, children in need and entire families. They provide much-needed assistance and promote our Catholic values of respecting all human life. Your support is much appreciated.
