CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING CORNER: THOUGHTS ON FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP

Over the next seven weeks we will be reviewing the principles of Catholic Social Teaching. We are in an election year and the bishops have asked us, once again, to form our consciences as we prepare to vote in the primaries and later in the general elections for 2012. Forming our consciences is always about listening to God through the teachings of Scripture and the church. We hope that these short reflections on church teaching and the public policy issues they touch will help everyone to do the hard, but important work of being faithful citizens and voting according to the dictates of a well formed conscience.
